

This remarkable first visual reference library uses magical painted windows to take the reader on a vivid journey of discovery, right into the heart of the subject. Packed with detailed illustrations and fascinating facts, A Look Inside is an exciting way to explore the world around us. Have you ever wondered how a spider weaves its web? Did you know that some scorpions can live for a year without eating? Spiders and Scorpions is a window on the world of these fascinating creatures. As each page is turned, the acetate windows reveal, layer by layer, the inner secrets of the fearsome Mexican red-knee tarantula and the formidable imperial scorpion. Three-dimensional cutaways explore spider and scorpion anatomy, while clear, easy-to-read text explains their lives and behavior. Dimensions (inches): 7 7/8 x 9 5/8
