

A very personal view of Wales and the work of Dylan Thomas as perceived by Jackie Hayden. It is an Irishman's rough guide to Dylan Thomas - a guidebook to poetry and place by an Irishman. Yes, we are fellow Celts, but we are also quite different in many of our attitudes and preoccupations, and I'm sure that that difference gave me a view of Dylan and his work that might not tally with the way he is viewed by some Welsh readers. So I set off on an adventure, one that took me to Wales many times over the following decades, and one that is still very much ongoing.
