

In eleventh century Sherborne, England three people who live vastly different lives, are brought together in an adventure that will change them all. Aigbert is an alchemist, who claims to be searching to find the laws of nature, but some suspect of dealing in magic. Will the gamin is a thirteen year old street boy who is known by the local merchants as a thief. Gytha is Lord Thingfirths thirteen year old daughter. The three are brought together by events caused by the kidnapping of Lord Thingfirths son, Brom. the three are commissioned with the task of finding out where Brom is and who it was who kidnapped him. They succeed in finding out where Brom is, but then must find a way to free him. The further adventure becomes daring, risky, and extremely difficult.
