

Linda Collinson took a life-threatening diagnosis for her infant son and made a career out of it. She cured her son, then used the determination and research skills she learned to solve other problems, including creating a line of skin care products that are beneficial to you and the earth. This is her story, the roadblocks put in her way and the legions of people who were quick to tell her NO! Her response, and the theme to her life, was (and is) Dont Tell Me No!
