

Thatâ€™s Quite a Subtitle. And maybe just a little misleading. Although it may sound like an in-depth study, Sunny (from the subtitle above) is the main character in this whimsical metaphysical adventure and her name quite adequately describes her personality. The story begins as Sunny is given a once-in-a-rare-lifetime opportunity to travel to another planet in a distant solar system. What surprises await her after meeting the planetâ€™s inhabitants (seven species of beings, each a total incarnation of one aspect of our human consciousness) is where the fun begins. Metaphysics in Action. Earthbridge Crossing is an allegorical story. You will soon recognize the characters Sunny meets in the world around youâ€™right here on Earth! They may not sparkle or be furry caricatures, however when you meet them, you will know them. And, in the spirit of true adventure, Sunny applies all she learns to master each situation as it unfolds, furnishing the reader with valuable insights for everyday living. Feel Good. If you are looking for heartache, violence, sex, or melodrama, this is not the book for you. But, if you want to smile and feel good, while learning some useful things about life, Earthbridge Crossing is a rare find. Readers are often surprised by how good the story makes them feelâ€™and feeling good is a very healthy state of mind. Recommended Reading. Earthbridge Crossing is a book recommended for anyone desiring a joyful experience. Itâ€™s for those who want to be entertained while learning more about human consciousness: how to better understand the human psyche and how to better relate to people. It is the perfect gift for young and old alike, and especially suitable for guiding young, developing minds along the road of light and love. More than a mere fantasy, Earthbridge Crossing includes spiritual insights, quotes from the masters, pertinent scientific facts about space travel, quantum physics, parallel universes, and more. For those who want to dig deeper, an extensive bibliography of related works is included.
