

These are true ghost stories told by people from Oregon. These ghost stories have been featured in our first 12 books and our Pacific Northwest book and include: - I examined my ankle to find five little red marks like fingerprints placed around me. My heart was beating uncontrollably fast, and a knot was forming in my stomach. Then I saw it... - ...Once I saw a woman with a white high collar blouse and long dark skirt at the end of the hall (down by the bathroom) just standing there staring at me. I blinked, and - ...After telling our story to his sister, she had accompanied us back to the house. To all of our utter disbelief the flowers that had just been delivered hours prior lay dead and wilted on the kitchen table... - ...Whatever it was, it was helpful to me by opening my front door when I came up to it with arms full of groceries even though the door had been locked. .. - ...my dad was watching TV in his room, and the phone began to ring. All of a sudden, a voice yelled out pick up the damn phone. This startled my dad ... - ...The lady knew the people who had lived here before us. She said that the man who built this house had died quickly of a heart attack. I asked her what he looked like,... The stories in this book is a small selection of all the stories on our site ghostsofameica.com.
