

In her distinctive style, renowned photographer Penny Gentieu has ingeniously chronicled 20 babies over the course of an entire year. Spread by spread, month by month, babies and parents can share the fascinating stages of growth and celebrate each baby's individual journey: smiling at three months, touching toes at five months, crawling at nine months—and developing his or her own special personality along the way! Every spread is brimming over with large, adorable photographs of this multicultural gang, who are sure to mesmerize babies, toddlers, parents, and caregivers. The gentle text serves as a reminder of baby's capabilities at each stage of development.
