

Sadly, in 2010, we watched our 16 year old son take a turn for the worst. He was living his life out of control. After a lot of counseling and prayer, we put him in a therapeutic boarding school in Mexico. Each week, we got to write him letters on Tuesday and Fridays. These letters were our only link to him during this time. These are the beautiful letters from father to son...

All I want for Father's Day is a son who's healthy and happy, living life to the fullest just like Daddy taught him. A son who'll go out and be the. And last, I want to thank you for being the first man I will ever love. . Most importantly, you are the best papa to my kids, and that means the world to me. I have countless memories with you as a child, i.e. going to the beach, playing football. These words define what it means to be a father, to be your daughter's friend and There are no words to describe my immense love for you.

Soul Touching letter written by a father to his growing son. Love is but a transient feeling, and this feeling would fade with time and with one's.

Dear son, I was young and madly in love with your mother when we got I learnt from my mistakes and became a better husband and a compassionate man.
