

Divorce is rarely pretty or pleasant, but we often forget how bewildering and scary it can be. Especially if you are only 13 years old and your parents are battling for custody of you. Meet Maggie, your average, well-adjusted, suburban preteen and follow her roller coaster ride from middle school normalcy to a tug of war between Mom and Dad. What comes next? Lawyers, counselors, and the threat of being uprooted and moved to the big city. None of the choices are hers and the final decision will come from a judge. Who really has Maggie's best interest at heart?

I like the name Maggie but can't think of a perfect middle name. Steering clear of Rod Stewart's Maggie May, what would be a good middle name. We're due a lg this June. Hubby would like to name her Maggie after his Grandma. Maggie, not Margaret. I'd ideally like a short middle name. The majority of handouts are posted on my google classroom. Students will be able to access all assignments, handouts, and notes on their google classroom.
