

Every internet marketer who sticks with it longer than a few months ends up with a general idea of what a "sales funnel" ought to look like. The trouble is: A. You often find out about sales funnels too far onwards into your marketing journey. The sales funnel you hastily create as a result ends up more as a "patch" or afterthought on your marketing strategies, instead of a vital component in your initial long-term plan. B. And this is the biggie - everyone tends to think in "Perfect Diagram" mode. What is "Perfect Diagram" mode? It's the phenomenon that occurs after a lifetime of reading textbooks and picture books. People imagine simplistic, textbook perfection, like so:
