

The boys got me riding lessons for Christmas. They were obviously trying to interest me in a new hobby. Bing's ill-concealed attempt to distract me from telling stories about the family (and publishing them) hadn't fooled me in the least. The other gifts - a decoupage kit (seriously? Fussy painting and artistic talent required? What were they thinking?), a tennis racquet (no way am I baring my crepe-y thighs - I'll take up tennis again when it's played in bloomers), calligraphy pens (once again, artistic talent is required, so it's not an option) - were stacked in a closet. Way in the back. But riding lessons! I'd always loved horses, had ridden while growing up in the Midwest... maybe! From the Domestic Underground to the Equestrian Underground, Carol Frey finds adventure and humor in daily life - this time around the barn.
