

There is a subtle misdirection right on the cover of this book. While some of the stories contained within were written in one minute, it is impossible for all of them to have been written that quickly. The Count of Anti-Christo Remembers His Wrestling Career, for example, is around 160 words. Paul Gude can only type around 54 words per minute. Also, I Wrote This with One Hand and The Dog Who Ate Fifty Mice were definitely written in LESS than a minute. Still, The Duck Wearing a Hat and Living Sock Puppets were written in exactly one minute as verified by a Swiss Accounting firm, so I'd only be lying if I said that ALL stories were written in one minute. It used to say that, but I changed it.
