

Personal Effects is a journey into the deaths of unidentified persons whose identities remain unknown. Personal Effects -1 explores the unidentified persons found in Broward County Florida from 1967-2010. While this digital collection is an attempt to use current technology to provide information that may sufficiently inform families as to a loved one's whereabouts, it does not provide graphic descriptions nor detailed accounts of either the crimes or investigations relative to them. It does, however, consist of, a.) photographs of personal effects uncovered at locations where an individual was found, b.) photos of artists' renderings of facial reconstructions as well as, c.) annotations which may include details that could assist in reuniting victims with friends and loved ones and thereby give these victims a name in death. If anyone has ever inexplicably disappeared from your life, this is a book for you.
