

A heart-wrenching story of one woman's fight with her past, gradually putting together the intricate pieces of a jigsaw puzzle locked away deep in her unconscious mind. As the quote says to dream of being in tears and then to actually wake up and discover we are crying is exactly what happened and brought the horrors of her childhood into reality. It has taken incredible courage for the author to break her vow of silence, but by speaking out she believes that her story can be of help to other survivors of abuse who are too afraid to speak the truth.
