

Giant Great Danes, tiny Chihuahuas, and all dogs in between have one thing in common...they know how to make themselves at home in a dog lover's heart. The delight of petting a furry head and watching a tail wag at full speed never wanes. Dog people love dogs, whether big or small, young or old, purebred or mutt. And dogs reciprocate with loyal adoration and friendship that warms the soul and makes life just that much better. Anyone who has spent time this side of a canine's leash will enjoy these short, fun-loving stories. They will smile at the engaging artwork of enthusiastic pups. Life lessons discovered at the dog park and beyond will remind people, with or without pets, of the special pleasures of community, play, and time among friends.
