

DO YOUR BOYS KNOW HOW TO... Sew a button back onto a shirt? Do a load of laundry without ruining it? Tie a mans tie? Mop the floor & clean the bathroom? Plant a garden? Deal with emergencies? Clean up their own messes? Make guest feel at home? Read a recipe & make it? Whittle a stick or build a cabin? Unclog a double sink or a toilet? Make a budget & keep a savings ledger? IF NOT, YOU NEED THIS BOOK! If youâ€™d like your boys to learn all the skills mentioned above (and more), THE BOYS GUIDE TO HOME SKILLS is the perfect how to guide. Designed for boys age 9-15, this manual provides a wealth of practical, old-fashioned boy know-how with enough information (and helpful illustrations!) on each topic to let your son try his hand at cooking, cleaning, gardening, building, whittling, camping, fishing and home repair â€™ just to name a few. It also includes loads of recipes, basic sewing skills, and laundry information â€™ for when Mom isnâ€™t home. Dads can also get involved in some of the bigger projects, like building the log cabin and the split-rail fence. Dads may also want to test out the camping, hunting, or fishing sections with their sons, and help them stock their toolbox once its completed. A wide range of hands on projects, lessons and activities are included in this unique guide. It is perfect for homeschooling a basic home economics course, and a great guide for any family wanting their boys and young men to have practical, helpful skills on the homefront.
