Thirteen-year-old public school boys Roderick, his brother Angus and their cousin Rory are no strangers to warfare. Their Granddad was also an Olympic shooting champion and is an ex- Regimental Sergeant Major. Roderick and Angus's father died in Iraq. For half-term the three boys go to Hesdin, a secluded hamlet in northern France, to stay with their now retired, but still very, very adventurous Grandfather. They are totally unprepared for what is about to happen!
