

Transmission Meditation is a form of group meditation for the purpose of stepping down (transforming) spiritual energies which thus become accessible and useful to the general public. It is the creation, in co-operation with the Hierarchy of Masters, of a vortex or pool of higher energy for the benefit of humanity. This is a form of service which is simple to do and is at the same time a powerful means of personal growth. It is a combination of two yogas: Karma Yoga (yoga of service) and Laya Yoga (yoga of energy or chakras). It is a service in which we can be involved for the rest of our lives, knowing that we are helping the evolution of humanity into, and beyond, the New Age. There are hundreds of Transmission Meditation groups active in many countries throughout the world. In Part I Mr. Creme explains how Transmission Meditation developed and gives an overview of how it works. In Part II he explains why people are drawn to meditation, discusses its purpose, and gives specific instruction in the technique of Transmission Meditation. Benjamin Creme's book, Transmission: A Meditation for the New Age, is available in both print and e-book formats.
